P.C.

1. By this petition, the petitioner seeks to challenge the termination order terminating her services. Notice why the petition should not be admitted was issued and a reply has been filed by the management. The reply discloses that the qualifications of one Mr. Acharya belonging to Backward class are better than those of the petitioner and hence his appointment is liable to be continued.

2. It is submitted that a post of open category is vacant and the petitioner can be considered for appointment of that post as and when the respondent management decides to fill up the post and the claim of the petitioner can be considered to that post in the open category.
